

Sermon Review

January 11, 2026

“The Righteousness, Resiliency and Redemptiveness of God”

Matthew 11:25-30

The character of God and what He is made up of is incomprehensible. However, what we can understand is that He is righteous, meaning that He is holy, sacred, and seeks the high ground in human relationships. We must understand that God is resilient, meaning that He has the ability to persevere and is strong in enduring the attacks of demonic powers. God is also redemptive meaning that He redeems and restores our broken spirits. Jesus reaffirms these character traits when He says in Matthew chapter 11, “come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls”. Jesus desires to help us through all of life’s circumstances. He wants us to be righteous like Him as we work through our earthly relationships. He wants us to be resilient in our faith in Him, trusting and depending on Him to see us through the tough times of life. He wants us to come to Him and receive the redemption that only He can provide in forgiving our sins. God always has our best interest in mind and has the power, the holy ghost power to help us become all of who He wants us to become.

Be Blessed.

Rev. Dr. Keith L. Reynolds, Pastor