

Sermon Review
January 31, 2021

“Trying To Understand The Will Of God”

Matthew 6: 9-10

God's actions often times are mysterious. How He does what He does and even when He does what He does, frequently leaves the most ardent and committed believer in awe. We must remember though, whatever happens in life it never catches God by surprise and, therefore we look at His will for our lives. In other words God has a special and distinctive plan for each of our lives whether we understand it, or even agree or disagree with it, His divine will, will be done. We are truly His the sheep of His pasture. Sometimes His will certainly from our perspective depletes us and we are left asking the question, why did God allow such tragic events to occur in our lives? Then there are those times we rejoice with enthusiasm for bountiful and abundant blessing. It would behoove us to know that God's will is always purposeful full with His intentionality for our live. His will is always permissive for He allows a variety of life experiences to come upon us so that we learn how to become closer to Him. His will is always perfect thus reminding us that all things work together for the good of those who love him and who have been called according to His purpose. We say and I hope and pray that His will be done on earth as it is done in heaven. That His will is done in our lives so that we become better witnesses for His name sake. Be Blessed.

In His Service,

Rev. Dr. Keith L. Reynolds, Pastor