

Sermon Review

January 4, 2026

“Vulnerable, But Yet Safe”

Ephesians 6: 10-18

Intentionally or not, life can leave each of us in vulnerable positions. Life can position us where we are susceptible to attack, hurt and harm. For the Christian it is without doubt that satan wants to do harm to us, to destroy us by any means he can so that he can separate us from the love of God that we have found in Christ Jesus. As Christians too we must understand that in our own strength we cannot defeat the wilds of the devil when he puts a target on us. He can be defeated with God’s power that is stored up in these words of the Apostle Paul. In Ephesians chapter 6, Paul tells us that we ought to put on the whole armor of God to withstand the wilds of the devil. The belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the gospel of peace on our feet, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation and the sword of the spirit. The armor of God is not complete without our steadfast and earnest prayers that keeps our minds alert as to satan’s tactics. As we start the new year of 2026, it is for sure in our best interest to be ready for battle and that we do not become weakened and vulnerable as we travel this Christian journey of 2026.

Be Blessed.

Rev. Dr. Keith L. Reynolds, Pastor